Numb. 5545

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 8. to Tuesday June 11. 1717.

Berne, June 9.

THE Deputies who went from hence ſometime ago to St. Gall, to enquire into ſeveral Diſorders that had been committed in that Convent, and whereof Complaints had been made to this State, returned hither on the 4th Inſtant, and are to make their Report the 12th to the Sovereign Council. On the 4th two Deputies were choſen by this Canton, to go and aſſiſt at the General Dyet, which, according to Cuſtom, meets every Midſummer; and, 'tis ſaid, is to aſſemble this Year at Baden, their ancient meeting Place. A Deputy is likewiſe appointed on the part of this State, to go to Soleurre, and receive of the French Ambaſſadour one Year's Arrear of Penſion, which he is paying to each Canton. Letters from Milan adviſe, that Sig. Molines arrived there from Rome the 25th paſt. The Prince of Lewenſtein, Governour of the Milaneze, having Notice of his Arrival, detached immediately two German Officers at the Head of a Company to his Inn, called the Three Kings, to ſeize him, and from thence he was carried in a Coach to the Caſtle, together with his Retinue, conſiſting of ſix Clergymen, two Gentlemen, and two Servants. They are kept there cloſe Priſoners, and no body is admitted to ſpeak to them. All his Baggage was likewiſe carried to the Caſtle, where the Portmantles having been open'd and thoroughly ſearched, were afterwards returned to him. He having asked Leave to ſend a Courier to Rome, it was granted him; and the Prince of Lewenſtein diſpatched likewiſe one to Vienna. The true Reaſon of the Impriſonment of that Miniſter, who was on his Way from Rome to Madrid, in order to act as Inquiſitor General of that Kingdom, is not yet known. Yeſterday being the Birth-Day of the King of Great Britain, Mr. Manning, His Majeſty's Reſident here, gave a handſome Entertainment to many People of Diſtinction of this Place, which was followed by a Ball.

Vienna, June 2. The laſt Letters from Peterwaradin ſay, that they could yet learn nothing of the Motions or Deſigns of the Turks, tho' they had uſed their utmoſt Endeavours to get Intelligence; and that great Numbers of Arnauts deſerted every Day from Belgrade for fear of a Siege. That on the 23d paſt, Prince Eugene came to Peterwaradin, and the next Day went from thence to Denta, to review Count Mercy's Army which now conſiſts of 40000 Men. That on the 25th he held a Council of War of all the General Officers, to conſider of the Operations of the Campaign, in which it is ſaid it was reſolved to paſt the Danube at Orſova, and that Count Mercy ſhould endeavour to ſeize on that Paſs. We hear by the Way of Walachia, that the Differences between the Turks and Tartars encreaſe daily, inſomuch that the latter will ſend but 30000 Men into the Field this Year, which is not above half the Number of what they uſed to furniſh. This Diſappointment is the greater, becauſe we are certainly inform'd that the Aſiatick Troops march very ſlowly and unwillingly. Three Days ago Count Gallas ſet out from hence for Rome to continue his Embaſſy there, and this Morning the Count de Charrolois and Count de Bonneval went towards the Army in Hungary, in company with a Son of the Duke de Villeroy, who arrived here two Days ago.

Vienna, June 5. Since the 2d Inſtant there are no Letters come from Prince Eugene, nor do we hear from other Hands that his Army has made any Motion; neither have we got any further Account of the Turks, but from a Raſcian, whom the Prince ſent over the Save for a Spy, and was forced to ſwim back again to ſave his Life, who reports that the Bulk of the Turkiſh Army is ſtill at Adrianople waiting for the Troops from Aſia, and only 30000 Janiſaries are on the March towards Belgrade; ſo that there is Reaſon to hope from the Backwardneſs of the Enemy's Preparations, that it will not be ſo difficult for the Imperial Army to croſs the River as was apppehended, provided they do not delay the attempting it much longer. The Troops of Bavaria which were ſaid to be imbarked ſome Days ago, will not be ready to leave their Quarters till the 10th Inſtant.

Caſſel, June 10. On the Third Inſtant Prince William arrived from Dreſden, and the Day after his Brother Prince George, from Berlin, who ſet out laſt Night Poſt for Vienna, in his Way to Hungary, where he is to ſerve this Year as a Volunteer. The Diſpute about the Marches between the Landgrave and Count Waldeck, which has been depending for ſome Time before the Judges of the Empire, was determined laſt Week in Favour of the latter; and it is expected, that the Emperour will give Commiſſion to ſome of the neighbouring Princes to execute the Sentence of the Court, and put that Count in Poſſeſſion of a Village, which the Landgrave had ſeized upon. Letters from Donawerth adviſes, that the Heſſian Regiment deſigned for Hungary, embarked there the 7th Inſtant. Laſt Week M. Brunel arrived from Sweden, by the Way of Gottenburg; he is to reſide here, as the King of Sweden's Secretary, to aſſiſt the Swediſh Envoy General Sparr.

Copenhagen, June 12. On the 10th Inſtant arrived in the Sound three Britiſh Men of War from England, having under their Convoy thirty Merchant-Ships bound for the Baltick. Another Britiſh Man of War, being one of thoſe which cruiſe in the North-Sea, came into this Port on the 8th, with five Swediſh Prizes, three of them Privateers, the other two Merchant-Men. On the 11th the Britiſh and Daniſh Squadrons ſailed from the Bay of Kiog for the Iſland of Hanoe.

Hague, June 18. On the 13th Inſtant the French Ambaſſadour the Marqueſs of Chateauneuf received a Letter from Count la

Marck,